LOCAL MATTERS. Further Particulars Concerning the

Late Fire. The theme of conversation upon the streets resterday was the great fire of Tuesday night. From an early hour yesterday morning until nightfall the scene of the conflagration was visited by thousands of persons, among whom were many ladies, as well as members of the General Assembly. As soon as the bricks within the walls where the western building formerly stood, as well as the walls themselves, had been suf-ticiently cooled by the water from the steamers, a force of hands was put to work to clear away the bricks and rubbish which had fallen upon the large water-wheel between the burned building and the house in which a number of barrels were stored. Workmen were also engaged during the day in repairing the roof of the barrel house. Early in the day Messrs. Haxall, Crenshaw & Co. received from the President of the Richmond Banking and Insurance Company a letter expressing the sympathy of the Board which he represented for the misfortune of the millers, and said that the insurance company would not require the time authorized by law for the payment of the risk which they had upon the property destroved, and that the $10,000 had already been placed to the credit of the firm. Mr. Crenshaw said that he would make an appropriate acknowledgment of this kind act. Steam fire engine "C" (Eighteenth street) was relieved from duty early on Wednesday morning, and sent back to the engine-house to be held in reserve in case of a fire in another part of the city. The other three engines were kept at work until half-past 6 o'clock last evening, when the hose was all reeled up, and the weary but faithful firemen went to their homes. The quantity of grain which was destroyed in the mill has been variously estimated some persons asserting that it was sixty thousand, while others represented that it was only about thirty thousand bushels. It is also said that about one hundred barrels of flour were burned. Besides this a large number of bags were destroyed.

During the progress of the fire sparks fell in large numbers upon some of the houses in Manchester. Indeed, Hatcher's factory and another building were at one time on fire, but the flames were speedily extinguish-Quantities of cinders fell in the streets, many falling beyond the Richmond and Petersburg railroad where it crosses Hull

Total insurance on stock, buildings, and machinery, $160,250. It was currently reported yesterday that Messrs. Haxall, Crenshaw & Co. were so fortunate as to have other risks on their property which was destroyed, which risks had been taken out by the concern, not through any agency in this city, but elsewhere upon personal application. We were mable, personal application. however, to verify this report, for upon inquiry at their office we were informed that about it. It is said that the firm will at once commence the erection of a small flour mill, and they hope by July to be able to turn out from two hundred to three hundred barrels

if it was so they didn't know anything of flour per day. In conclusion, it may be remarked that at the time of the fire the wind was blowing from the north, which carried the flames away from the lumber house and other buildings which were in close proximity to the mill, and thus a more disastrous fire was averted. Mr. R. B. Haxali, a member of the firm, who was out of the city at the time of the fire, reached Richmond yesterday.

THE INSURANCE BUREAU.-The report in some of the city papers that the Senate concurred in the report of the Committee on General Laws adversely to the passage of the bill to establish an Insurance Bureau, and a repeal of the insurance deposit laws, is an error. The Senate laid the bill on the table till the member who offered the same should return to the city, he being temporarily absent.

EVIDENCE OF COLLIER AND DAVIS, WHO ROBBED REV. GEORGE F. WILLIAMS-FIFTEEN YEARS' EXPERIENCE AS A THIEF-HONOR AMONG THIEVES.

Yesterday Winston Rogers, formerly a deective, was before Justice White for examination of the charge made against him by the Commonwealth's Attorney upon information given by Lewis Davis that Rogers had bought of Thomas Collier the silverware stolen from Rev. George F. Williams, with guilty knowledge that it had been stolen. Captain George D. Wise appeared for the Commonwealth, and John A. McCaull, Esq., represented Winston Rogers.

Davis being called to the stand, said he knew nothing of the robbery of the house of Mr. Williams until he saw it stated in the local columns of the Dispatch, and knowing he was under the surveillance of the police, he called the attention of members of his family to the fact that he had been at home. that night, and made a memoranda of it himself. On the street several days afterwards he met Collier, who inquired whether Winston Rogers was in the city, and asked him to ascertain, as he was anxious to see him. Davis found Rogers that evening, and informed Collier of the fact. That night Collier went to Davis's house, carrying an oilcloth carpet-sack, which he said contained silverware, and asked Davis to go with him. to see Rogers, with whom he wished to make as soon as Coller whistled Rogers came out.

the way we whistled." Major Poe was called to the stand, and said he called to see Collier after he was arrested to make inquiries about a crime committed a long time ago, and Collier voluntarily spoke of the Williams burglary. He season. said he and Davis stole the articles taken from the residence of Mr. Williams, and had month of May are the Vivian Varnet Troupe, sold them for $9.40; that Davis also made a Lucca in two grand concerts, the Amateur 39.40.

Collier being sworn, said Davis had lied and Davis went to Bob Allen's house to see the regular meeting of the company the silver hid under his house until it was sold, and we sold Mr. Williams's black pants to Tom McDonough,"

Collier further said he had made a different statement to Major Poe, but it was false. He knew nothing to connect Rogers with In answer to a question Collier said:

ADVENTURES OF AN ESCAPED CONVICT .-

Scott Eggleston, the colored convict who escaped from the penitentiary in company with Albert Fortune Friday morning last, was recaptured in Powhatan county Tuesday. Yesterday he was carried aboard the Danville train at Powhatan station, and in charge of a citizen of the county started to this city. When the train was between Powhatan station and Robiou's store, and about eleven miles from Richmond, the prisoner jumped through a window of the car in which he had been seated and made good complimented by many of our leading citizens in a card recently published in the Dispatch, and as a just appreciation of the same the director has placed before the public a programme of the rarest kind, one which will undoubtedly give great satisfaction to the community. The grand Soldiers' Chorus from Faust, with full brass band accompani ment, and Die Wacht am Rhein (to be sung in German), with full orchestral accompaniment, are two of the leading choruses on the programme. In addition to these superb musical gems, the director, Mr. Wheat, has arranged the new and popular waltz from La Fille de Mmc. Angot to be sung by the Kreutzer Octette. The Mendelssohn Sextette will produce Abt's masterpiece, "Ave Maria," and Mr. Wheat's piano solo, Capriccio, brilliant in B. Minor, Opus 22, by Mendelssohn, one of the best pieces this unequaled planist produces, is also on the programme.

ap 23-3t DEAFNESS CAUSED BY CATARRIL.-Catarrh not infrequently produces deafness. Mr. Levi Springer, of Nettle Lake, (P. O.), Williams county, O., formerly of Durban's Corners, O., has been cured of deaf ness of fourteen years' standing by using Dr. Sages's RICHMOND THEATRE. catarrh remedy. He was so deaf he could not hear person talk when seated by his side, and can now hear the church bells ring two miles distant-so he writes. A REMARKED CASE OF DEAFNESS CURED.-

Dickersonville, Niag. Co., N. Y., February 22, 1871.—About one year ago I caught a severe cold in the head, which terminated in a severe form of catarrh. During the time ulcerations occurred in the nasal passages, and I became wholly deaf in one ear, with partial deafness in the other. The inflamation had involved all the delicate structures of nent deafness. The discharge became profuse and feild, both into my throat and from my ears. In RICHMOND THEATRE. covered. My hearing is restored, and my catarri is entirely well.

THE VOILERS OF RICHMOND,—

Fellow-citizens: I am an independent candidate for the office of CITY SERGEANT, and solicit your suffrages. Had I been fairly defeated two years ago I should not now be a candidate. If the Conservative and Republican parties both nominate for the Sergeantcy I shall withdraw. Yery respectfully, [ap 4] GEORGE A. HUNDLEY.
